

GLOBAL PERSPECTIVES ON LEGAL HISTORY

A Max Planck Institute for Legal History and Legal Theory
Open Access Publication Series

The numerous editions and early translations produced throughout the eighteenth century enabled the broad dissemination of Emer de Vattel's juridical-political work Droit des gens. This book investigates the global impact of the Droit des gens with regard to the different political realities, the historical and legal contexts as well as the attempts, mechanisms and strategies used to put these ideas into practice and establish new doctrine between the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries.

Elisabetta Fiocchi Malaspina is Assistant Professor of Legal History at the Law Faculty of the University of Zurich (Switzerland). Her main research fields are the history of international law, the circulation of natural law and law of nations theories in the 18th and 19th centuries.

Global Perspectives on Legal History is a book series edited and published by the Max Planck Institute for Legal History and Legal Theory, Frankfurt am Main, Germany. It includes monographs, editions of sources, and collaborative works. All titles in the series are available both as premium print-on-demand and in the Open Access format.
